Old Business:

Jane thanked those who helped with the World Day of prayer service. She also noted that Wolfville UCW will be responsible for hosting the World Day of Prayer in 2017. Elizabeth Brown and also the Anglican Church had offered the use of their facilities. The World Day of Prayer will be the first Friday in March.

New Business:

Mary thanked everyone for the cards she received during her recovery.

It was noted that there would be a luncheon on Wednesday, March 9th, from 11:45 A.M. to 1:00 p.m. at the Wolfville Baptist Church followed by a program by Paula Rockwell.

It was noted that Orchard Valley UCW in New Minas would be meeting on Monday, March 21st at 2:00 p.m. Their program will be Kings Kikima Grannies – "Grannies helping Grannies". The members of this group were invited to join the New Minas UCW group.

The Presbyterian UCW Rally this year will be held at St. George and St. Andrew United Church in Annapolis Royal on May 18, 2016. Registration will be held at 9:30 A.M.

Mary Mercer moved that we give a donation, in memory of Jean Palmeter, in the amount of $25.00, to the North Grand Pré Community Church. Seconded by Andy Pitter. MOTION CARRIED

Our group will go to the Wolfville Nursing Home on St. Patrick's Day, March 17th, from 2:00 to 3:00 p.m. for the annual sing-along. Tentatively the following people plan to assist with this program: Jane Hynes, Jan Porter, Hughanne Hennigar, Ann Keirstead and Vange Leslie.

It was noted that Helen Buckler was now in a private room. The move had taken place around February 1st.

Being no further business, the meeting adjourned at 2:15 p.m.

Our program was a presentation by Cathy Sheriko about the development and operation of Camp Triumph located in Prince Edward Island. Camp Triumph is an exceptional facility for children who are not unwell but who are living in families where there are chronic illnesses. This was an excellent presentation and enjoyed by those present.

Andy moved that we give a donation of $25.00 to Camp Triumph. Seconded by Mary Mercer. MOTION CARRIED.

Next meeting – April 4, 2016.
