Maybe God is Like That

By Jennifer Grant

Illustrated by Benjamin Schipper

With your child or grandchild, watch Don read the story Maybe God is Like That and then have your child or grandchild draw a picture of what joy, love, peace, kindness, etc. looks like to her or him (or a picture of another sign of God' spirit at work). Take a photo of the picture and send it in an email to Andy or Don: please say what the picture depicts. Don will show the pictures in next week's video and Andy will make a display of them.

If you wish, you can also use the discussion questions (below) to talk to your child or grandchild about the book. The questions are from Zion St John Lutheran Church (www.zionstjohn.org/page/83), possibly by Youth and Families minister Caitlin Tauro.

As well, you can search "Fruit of the Spirit" on Google, say, and find lots of crafts and other activities to go with this theme. The Bible reference is Galations 5:22-23.
