Youth Programs

Voyagers: During Worship Service. As part of our creation season, for the next four weeks, we are doing a fundraiser for the World Wildlife Foundation! Please bring donations to Pastor Katie at the church; all cheques should be made out to Orchard Valley United Church so we can tally the total at the end of the five weeks! Please contact Pastor Katie for a letter and form.

Youth Group: Friday, Oct. 14th and Oct. 28th from 6:30-8:00 pm

Kid's Hang Out: Oct. 15th - Halloween-themed, costumes are encouraged!

Mystery Friends is an anonymous pen pal program where a member of the youth in the congregation is partnered with an adult in the congregation for four weeks. They write letters using their secret codenames for the first three weeks about hobbies, life, school, work. They either Email their letter by Saturday evening to youth.ovuc@gmail.com to be printed off on Sunday OR write a handwritten letter to be left on the table to be picked up. There will be two tables set up in the sanctuary, one to receive letters for the Jr. members and the other where letters for the Sr Mystery Friend may be dropped off. Following church the juniors check the Jr. Table to see if they got anything from their Sr. Mystery Friend, and the seniors check their table. Then the pairs all meet on the fifth week at our Santa Claus Celebration held before the white gift service! You will be contacted the week before mystery friends with your codenames!

Getting to Know You small dinner groups – Beginning (again!) - Congregational Life Committee is happy to facilitate the group making! Contact Cheryl Sellsted at Cheryl.sellsted@gmail.com or call 902-670-4541 to sign up if you are interested. For those Cheryl has already spoken to, you are already on the list and there is no need to contact again. We hope to have the groups in place to “set you loose” to begin your dining adventures in October.
