An energetic person with the training and vision to grow the music program in step with the expansion of the church, the Choir Director should have a high level of choral directing skills, ability to teach and lead a choir, knowledge of sacred music and good motivational skills. The Choir Director will work closely with the Pianist to ensure all music is prepared for accompanying the choir and other music groups as well as leading congregational worship music for all services. Working with all age groups in a variety of musical styles, the Choir Director also has a good sense of humour.
